We Will Miss You, Pat Dupont & Fran Auclair

We received an email from Pat last week:

Dear Father David,

Fran and I have decided to return to our home state of Maine. We have sold our home in Florida and the cottages in Maine, and have purchased a lovely and smaller residence in Lincoln, Maine. As we both get older it was time to find a place with less care. My greatest loss is leaving St. Stephen's, but I hope to stay connected through the internet. My soul has been happy there, and I need to know I can still listen to sermons and pray with you and Father Rob. Thank you for these memorable ten years.

*Love and prayers,
Pat*

Hurricane Season Contingency Plans

Just a reminder of our severe weather contingency plans. Because storm projections of direction and intensity may change dramatically over the course of days or even hours, most major decisions about cancellations won't be made until late in the process and after official proclamations have been made by the appropriate authorities.

Our goal is to continue worship as routinely as possible, while maintaining a safe environment. We will do our best to notify everyone in the event of a cancellation of services, but please, in any event, remain at home if you feel unsafe to attend worship.

Our usual procedure is as follows:

Services would continue in the event of a Hurricane WATCH or Tropical Storm ADVISORY (a hurricane possible in the next 24-72 hrs.)

Services would be cancelled in the event of an official Hurricane WARNING (hurricane present or expected within 24 hrs. and government has advised all people to be off roads and in a safe place.)

If you do not have a safe place to ride out a storm, please let us know.
