Wednesday Night Book Group New Book
The Wednesday Night Book will be reading "Martin Luther" by Eric Metaxas. This new study will begin on February 6th at 7:00pm in the small group room. The book is available online from Amazon and we have several copies in the office for $12.00. We will discuss the introduction and chapter 1 at our first meeting. If you have any questions please call the office, 646-6115, and speak to Priscilla.

"Metaxas knows how to tell a story and how to develop characters, and this talent makes his narrative at once gripping and accessible . . . an excellent glimpse of the whole of Luther's life."

Cursillo is patterned on Jesus' own example. He searched out and called a small group of potential leaders. He trained them by word and example and inspired them with a vision. He linked them together and sent them out in the world to bring the world to him.

Are you grounded in your faith and have been seeking to grow your knowledge, awareness & love of God in the world?

This is the beginning of Christian leadership and the Diocese of Central Florida Cursillo movement encourages you to take the next step.

If you are interested in attending a Cursillo Weekend please speak to Fr. David or call the office at 646-6115.

Parish member Michele Giberson is going to make a missionary trip to the Navajo Reservation on July 26th—August 3rd of this year. She will be part of a group that will be working on a church in Blue Gap, Arizona and another church in Gallup, New Mexico.

In order to fund her trip Michele will be providing breakfast and asking for donations on the last Sunday in February. The trip Michele is making this year is full. If you want more information about the work on the Navajo Reservations please ask Michele.
